

OXFORD UPDATES 2020

Hosted by the Nuffield Laboratory of Ophthalmology & the Oxford Eye Hospital

GLAUCOMA – the present and future!

Monday 20th April 2020 from 09:00 to 17.45
Worcester College, University of Oxford, Oxford, OX1 2HB

Approved for 7 CPD Points by The Royal College of Ophthalmologists

TIME	SESSION	LEAD
08:50 – 09:20	Registration with tea and coffee on arrival
09:20 – 09:30	Welcome and Introductions	Gurjeet Jutley/ Rajen Tailor
09:30 – 10:45	Oxford and South Midlands Deanery Registrar Presentations	Aisling Higham/ Guy Mole
10:45 – 11:10	TEA BREAK
11:10 – 12:10	Oxford and South Midlands Deanery Registrar Presentations	Aisling Higham/ Guy Mole
12:15 – 13:00	Ida Mann Lecture: The evolution of glaucoma surgery	Keith Barton
13:00 – 14:00	LUNCH BREAK
14:00 – 17:00	Consultant Guest speakers: Presentations (20 mins talk & 5 mins questions)	Chairs: Gurjeet Jutley/Rajen Tailor
14:05 – 14:30	Is the optic nerve the big round thing near the macula?	Nigel Davies
14:30 – 14:55	The role of Endocyclophotocoagulation (ECP)	Laura Crawley
14:55 – 15:20	Minimally invasive glaucoma surgery - updates & the future!	Gok Ratnarajan
15:20 – 15:45	Update on angle closure management: What we have learnt from recent trials	Winnie Nolan
15:45 – 16:10	TEA BREAK
16:10 – 16:35	Lights and Laser!	Gus Gazzard
16:35 – 17:00	Why do patients go blind from Glaucoma?	Imran Masood
17:00 – 17:45	Jessie Mole Lecture: Shedding Light on Inherited Retinal Disorders	Professor Jane Farrar
17:45 – 17:50	Close of Meeting	Meeting Organisers