

Joint Clinical and Research Meeting for Psychiatry and Neurology

Wednesday 5th February 2025: St Anne's College, Woodstock Road, Oxford

Scientific organising committee: Dr Alvaro Barrera and Dr Adam Handel

0900-0930	Arrival and registration
0930-0940	Welcome Professor Belinda Lennox, Professor Martin Turner, Professor Kevin Talbot
	Session 1 – Psychology and neurology interface
0940-1005	Chrystalina Antoniades Quantifying Parkinsonism using digital technology: The OxQUIP study
1005-1030	Nele Demeyere Neuropsychological changes after stroke
1030-1055	Professor Mike Browning The efficacy and mechanism of pramipexole in the treatment of depression
1055-1120	Coffee
	Session 2 – Brain health
1120-1145	Sana Suri Cardiac risk and resilience for dementia
1145-1210	Anya Topiwala Alcohol and brain health
1210-1235	Riccardo De Giorgi GLP1RA and brain health
1235-1300	Max Taquet Impact of vaccines/infections on brain health
1300-1400	Lunch
	Session 3 – Depression and psychosis
1400-1425	Philip Wilkinson The ANTLER75+ trial: when and how to withdraw antidepressants
1425-1450	Matthew Taylor 'Is there rebound psychosis on stopping antipsychotic medications?'
1450-1515	Graham Blackman Machine learning approaches to secondary psychosis
1515-1545	Coffee
	Session 4 – Pain
1545-1610	Verena Hinze Insights into Suicidal Distress Among Adolescents with Chronic Pain
1610-1635	John Dawes Using patient autoantibodies to better understand pain mechanisms
	Grand Round
1635-1800	Chair: Prof Martin Turner Phil Davison – A medical model of uncertainty Aysu Yasitli – Case discussion of a complex psychiatry patient Brendan Sargent/ Anna Chelchowska – An audit of antibody MDT cases
1800-1830	Drinks reception
1830-2000	Dinner